

Alliance Française d'Atlanta

Atlanta's premier provider of French language and culture

Presents

AF Travel- April in Paris Jazzy Nights in The City of Lights April 1st -10th 2011

A weeklong trip during which participants will walk in the footsteps of some of jazz music's greatest artists and Paris's most renowned expats past and present.

Throughout the day visit historic sites, museums and landmarks and trek to the very places where Sidney Bechet, James Baldwin, Josephine Baker, Richard Wright, Paul Robeson, Ada 'Brick Top' Smith and many others passed their time and made history.

Spend the evenings hearing hot jazz in cool spots and neighborhood clubs.

This unique perspective offers a fascinating twist on a famously fabulous tourist destination.

Highlights Include :

Walking tour of African American intellectual, artistic and musical heritage of Paris
Booksigning / meet and greet with Miles Marshall Lewis author of "French like Me"
Live jazz show with dinner, including panel discussion and Q&A with expat jazz musicians
Meals at popular Antillaise and African Restaurants
Salon Soirée hosted by American expatriate and native Atlantan Scene river open top boat tour of major Paris attractions
Walking tour of La Goutte D'or/ "Little Africa" 18eme arrondissement
Chocolate tasting
Banlieue Bleus festival concert and much more !

cost :$2250 (land only) or $3500 (air inclusive)
based on double occupancy
for more information contact Peri Frances @ 404-898-1227
or communication@afatl.com